

Moving On

By Kalleigh, 15 yo

Through all the disappointment, lies and tears

After all the minutes months and years

You reach a point in your life

*When you can no longer
put up a fight*

*Forget all that has hurt you,
And what you can't change*

Because all that hurt will do, is bring you more pain

*So hold the ones close,
who love you and care*

*Because that's how you know
who will always be there*
